HAPPY FATHERS DAY

Here are a few resources to have a discussion around Father's Day.

First is a video discussing Australia's push for more inclusive parent holidays. Several schools around the country are changing the name of celebrations such as Father's Day in order to be more inclusive. The move has been labelled as 'political correctness gone mad' by some critics, while the CEO of Diversity Council Australia says removing the word Father or Mother out of the name of a day is 'not necessary'.
