MICROAGGRESSIONS

Even though Juneteenth is a federal holiday, it often is not talked about in school, on the news, or in the workplace. Arizona, Arkansas, Florida, Hawaii, Indiana, Mississippi, Montana, New Hampshire, North Dakota, Wisconsin and Wyoming do not recognize Juneteenth as a state holiday, despite it being a federal holiday. It is important for us to remember that Juneteenth is not "a holiday just for African-Americans," but a holiday for all Americans. It is a recognition of an important event in our nation's history, and it is a day of remembrance and celebration for the struggles that took place so that change can happen.
